

Buzzsaw Release Notes

Legacy Issues Fixed in May 20, 2006 Release (Version 7.0.1669.6)

Resolved Legacy Issue
Valid users see the following error message: "The specified user or group does not exist"
Multiple file transfers before a DWF file is displayed
Buzzsaw errors displayed after 60 or more minutes of inactivity
Dashboards are not rendering properly when using certain query parameters
Users with restricted system permissions having trouble viewing DWF files
Performance issues for users in Hong Kong
Error when deleting a group on a site with a large number of groups
Member List Refresh button does not work
Links pointing to themselves causing problems
Delay after submission of submittal log
Switching tabs in the project setup area causes long load times on large sites
While copying a file from an older CDROM drive to Buzzsaw, if you eject the disk from the drive, you don't always get an error
Buzzsaw Standard welcome email contains grammatical error
Login problem with Microsoft Terminal Services
Error when printing a DWF file with very long file name from View in Window
Buzzsaw Web Access upload control inactive after applying IE patch KB912945
Exiting Buzzsaw in IE embedded mode does not close projectpoint.exe process correctly.
Printing DWF files from main Buzzsaw window causes problems when file path is over 200 characters
BCC's can be made visible in Gmail, Hotmail, Yahoo
Administrator notification email of a permission change is missing the site name
User name is shown twice in administrator notification email
Standard Toolbar is not displayed occasionally

