

NEOLANT is the market leader in inter-system integration for fuel, energy and public sector in Russia. The main focus of the company is the creation and implementation of information systems to support management decision-making based on the integration of technology: CAD, GIS, PLM, EDMS, CAM, SCADA, MES. NEOLANT has experts on staff that develop solutions specific to the customer's system integration business needs.

NEOLANT is one of the largest IT companies in Russia, and in the top 40 suppliers of IT services. NEOLANT is one of the fastest growing organizations in the Russian IT market.

NEOLANT has significant experience in Building Information Modeling (BIM), Product Lifecycle Management (PLM), and the transformation of business processes for its customers. NEOLANT has undertaken projects for major Russian holdings Gazprom, LUKOIL, Rosatom, Rosneft, RusHydro, Transneft, and others, and are experts in designing such things as facilities of oil & gas fields, and linear transport by using GIS, BIM, and PLM technologies. NEOLANT also has a successful practice in engineering natural resources and infrastructure services.

In addition, NEOLANT specializes in designing technology with the use of AutoCAD Plant 3D and the creation of three-dimensional GIS over large areas based on Autodesk Infrastructure Modeler.

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT:

www.neolant.ru